

Keep net neutrality. Internet providers already charge so much for mediocre internet, we don't need to pay any more or even have it limited.